An Ordinance To Prevent Injury To Or Destruction Of Shade
Trees In The Streets, Alleys And Public Grounds Of The Village Of Concord.

The Village of Concord ordains as follows:

Section 1. No person shall cut down, mar, deface or uproot any tree standing in any of the public streets, lanes, alleys or other public grounds of the Village of Concord for any cause whatever, without first having permission from the Common Council of said Village, and then only in strict conformity with all the conditions and limitations of such permission. Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

Section 2. It shall not be lawful for any person to hitch any horse or horses, mule or mules, or cattle, to any shade or ornamental trees in any of the streets, lanes, alleys or public grounds in the Village of Concord. Every person offending against the provisions of this ordinance shall upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars besides costs of prosecution, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding sixty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of the Marshal to enforce the provisions of this ordinance.

By-Law No. VI.

An Ordinance To Prevent Nuisances And The Carrying On Of Offensive Trades.

The Village of Concord ordains as follows:

Section 1. It shall not be lawful for any butcher or other person to keep, use or maintain any slaughter house, or other place for the slaughtering of animals within the corporate limits of the Village of Concord.

Section 2. It shall not be lawful for any person to keep, or suffer to remain in or about his shop, dwelling or any premises occupied by him, any offensive animal or vegetable matter within the limits of the Village of Concord, or to carry on any filthy or loathsome trade or occupation offensive to the public, or prejudicial to the public health.

Section 3. Every person violating any of the provisions of either of the preceding sections of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars, for each offense, besides costs of prosecution, or by imprisonment in the county jail, not to exceed ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

Section 4. It shall also be the duty of the Marshal to visit and inspect all places in the Village of Concord where he suspects or has reason to believe that any of the provisions of this ordinance have been or are being violated; and in every case where he finds any person in the actual violation of any of the provisions of such ordinance, it shall be his duty immediately to notify such persons to cease such violation, and also to report the name of such offender, the character of his offense, and whether the order of the Marshal has been complied with, to the Common Council at its next meeting.
