

Sorry, the specific “named area” subject of this document has been removed and retired as a named DNR Wildlife Division focus area.

- The document/map intended at this location is being phased out and removed because the specific area named in the document/map has been removed/retired as a named DNR Wildlife Division focus area. That specific named area will no longer be listed as an area in wildlife/game area lists, or as a unique focus area with a name, boundary, and specific information provided online.
- This document is a phased step as we update online information, linked documents and other resources.
- We appreciate your patience as we develop new and better information. Thank you.
