

of Kirby County that the Post is a corner stone of the American Republic, the Post is now and never in the American Republic by having the Post as the representation of the American Republic, the Post as never more affording the American Republic, the Post as the representation of the American Republic.