Two vertical strip photomicrographs of a rock sample. The left strip is labeled "SPLITTING ST. N. 100 FT. W." and shows a vertical scale from 30 to 39. The right strip is labeled "SPLITTING ST. N. 100 FT. W." and shows a vertical scale from 30 to 39. Both strips show a dark, textured rock surface with some lighter, possibly mineralized, areas. The left strip has a small "1" near the bottom. The right strip has a small "1" near the bottom. The labels are oriented vertically along the right side of each strip.
