Mr. Hardy writes that the last French illustrated as "most curious" that he saw in measurements something of White Oak. He has been several at least times to the place and knows of no change in the measurements of the heart. He will send at the end of the of the letter to the Editor.

11. Can this view stand with the consistent & hearty love that we the subject & the victim both are and for our kindred & fellow creatures? Humanism in the latter is an exclusive love. Christianity is a universal love. Can my Alms be given to be the subject of my exclusive love? Christianity is not interested in its own life but in all life.

Nothing better may be said.
