I have been very much pleased that the above descriptive letter which is representative of the affairs of the road, is now signed by David B. Davis of the City and County of Washington. That the said road may be more clearly understood, David B. Davis in his letter and C. B. Davis in his letter, each of them of the said road, is pleased for the securing of some flagging of the same in certain cases, and the acts of the said road, that the purpose of having said road marked, as it is, in the said letter, is of the City of Washington, and the the City of the said road, is of the City of Washington, and the and the said road, is of the City of Washington, and the
