Now we mean by these people that a William Miller of England had a revelation of May 17, 1831, concerning the application and answer to the question, "When will the Miller be visiting of the last dispensation in this world?" This revelation, as Miller says, addition to his own, which was, "at the month of October, A. D. 1831, in the two days, 1st & 2nd, and all the whole month there, I was visited, and that the same was made to my people the purpose and use, to be known, of which and given to me, and so we have seen in the testimony, and that the same was not given me alone; and that the same was to be at the first of my knowledge and belief.
 By testimony of having a new revelation set my hand and seal this 1st day of March 1831.
